About Us

The Georgia Poetry Society was founded in Atlanta, Georgia on August 30, 1979 by the late poets and friends, Edward Darvin Vickers and Charles J. Bruehler.

From thirty members at its founding, the Society has grown to encompass a membership of approximately 200 poets and supporters of poetry in Georgia and throughout the country. GPS is a 501(c)(3) non-profit association of volunteer members devoted as a "public charity" to the mission of providing opportunities for the study, practice and appreciation of poetry. We encourage our members to write their own poems, to perform them in public and to read widely the poetry of others.

To accomplish this mission the Society sponsors a number of outreach programs, poetry workshops, readings by well-known poets, open mic poetry readings, a Traveling Poetry Road Show, an annual anthology of poetry and a Poetry In the Schools project. In addition the Society sponsors a number of contests annually, including youth poetry contests.

The Georgia Poetry Society is a proud member of the National Federation of State Poetry Societies (NFSPS).
